

MAJOR GENERAL JUDD H. LYONS

Adjutant General, Nebraska National Guard

Major General Judd H. Lyons is the Adjutant General for the Nebraska National Guard. As the Adjutant General, Lyons is the senior uniformed National Guard officer responsible for formulating, developing, and coordination policies, programs and plans affecting more than 4,800 Army and Air National Guard personnel. As the Adjutant General, he commands the Nebraska Army and Air National Guard and serves as the state's official channel of communication with the National Guard Bureau to the Departments of the Army and Air Force.

Major General Lyons' military career began in 1980 when he enlisted into the Nebraska Army National Guard. Lyons received his commission from the Nebraska National Guard Military Academy on 22 May 1983. He has commanded at the Company, Training Site Command and Major Subordinate Command levels. Prior to his current assignment Major General Lyons served as the commander of 92nd Troop Command with additional duties as the Chief Joint Staff for the Nebraska National Guard. Lyons deployed to Afghanistan from November 2006 through June 2007 and served as the commander of 209th Regional Security Assistance Command as part of Combined Joint Task Force Phoenix V.

Major General Lyons and his wife Amy have three children and they reside in Omaha, Nebraska.
